

New from Atwater Library - a tutorial for seniors on how to navigate the Quebec health services website

While the Atwater library does have information sessions, I wanted to create a permanent instructional tutorial available on the website that library users could keep coming back to if they needed help. Enjoy and have fun navigating!

Atwater Library: Accessing Health Information from your home computer