

Poetry and Digital Photography @ "Just Watch Me"

On Saturday, September 13, 2014, Digital Literacy Project facilitators Rana Salah and Nina Pariser conducted a poetry and digital photography workshop as part of Just Watch Me at the Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery at Concordia University.

Participants learned some photography techniques, did some writing exercises and wrote poetry inspired by their own photographs.

Here are some snapshots of the participants taking pictures and writing poetry.
