

RECLAIM Videos Winter 2010

Participants from RECLAIM Literacy Council who took part in last fall's video workshops returned to the library for a second, intensive program. Workshops took place over three full Saturdays during the month of February, participants focused on building narratives with their footage.